Sprouting is the natural germination process by which seeds or spores put out shoots, plants produce new leaves or buds, or other newly developing parts experience further growth.. In the field of nutrition, the term signifies the practice of germinating seeds, to be eaten raw or cooked.. The term can also be used for hair growth, and in a figurative sense it can mean something appearing suddenly.

Medieval cuisine includes foods, eating habits, and cooking methods of various European cultures during the Middle Ages, which lasted from the fifth to the fifteenth century. During this period, diets and cooking changed less than they did in the early modern period that followed, when those changes helped lay the foundations for modern European cuisine.
